IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER 18, 2021

Mr. DAINES introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs

---

A BILL

To amend title 5, United States Code, to deny Federal retirement benefits to individuals convicted of child sex abuse.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Denying Pensions to 5 Convicted Child Molesters Act of 2021”.

6 SEC. 2. DENIAL OF RETIREMENT BENEFITS.

7       (a) IN GENERAL.—Subchapter II of chapter 83 of 8 title 5, United States Code, is amended by inserting after 9 section 8312 the following:

1   “§ 8312a. Convicted child molesters

2       “(a) PROHIBITION.—

3           “(1) IN GENERAL.—An individual, or a survivor
4           or beneficiary of an individual, may not be paid an-5           nuity or retired pay on the basis of the service of the 6           individual which is creditable toward the annuity or 7           retired pay, subject to the exceptions in section 8           8311(2) and (3) of this title and subsections (d) and 9           (e) of this section, if the individual is convicted of 10          an offense—

11           “(A) within the purview of section 2241(c), 12           section 2243(a), or paragraph (3) or (5) of sec-13           tion 2244(a) of title 18; and 14           “(B) for which the conduct constituting 15          the offense is committed on or after the date of 16          enactment of this section, which shall include 17          any offense that includes conduct that contin-18          ued on or after such date of enactment.

19           “(2) NOTICE.—If an individual entitled to an 20          annuity or retired pay is convicted of an offense de-21          scribed in paragraph (1), the Attorney General shall 22          notify the head of the agency administering the an-23          nuity or retired pay of the individual.

24        “(b) FOREIGN OFFENSES.—

25           “(1) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of subsection 26          (a), a conviction of an offense within the meaning of

1 such subsection may be established if the Attorney 2 General certifies to the agency administering the an-3 nuity or retired pay concerned—

4 “(A) that an individual has been convicted 5 by an impartial court of appropriate jurisdiction 6 within a foreign country in circumstances in 7 which the conduct would constitute an offense
8 described in subsection (a)(1), had such con-9 duct taken place within the United States, and 10 that such conviction is not being appealed or 11 that final action has been taken on such appeal;

12 “(B) that such conviction was obtained in 13 accordance with procedures that provided the 14 defendant due process rights comparable to 15 such rights provided by the United States Con-16 stitution, and such conviction was based upon 17 evidence which would have been admissible in 18 the courts of the United States; and 19 “(C) that such conduct occurred after the 20 date of enactment of this section, which shall 21 include any offense that includes conduct that 22 continued on or after such date of enactment.

23 “(2) REVIEW.—Any certification made pursu-24 ant to this subsection shall be subject to review by 25 the United States Court of Federal Claims based

1       upon the application of the individual concerned, or 2       his or her attorney, alleging that a condition set 3       forth in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C) of paragraph 4       (1), as certified by the Attorney General, has not 5       been satisfied in his or her particular circumstances.
6       Should the court determine that any of these condi-
7       tions has not been satisfied in such case, the court 8       shall order any annuity or retirement benefit to 9       which the individual concerned is entitled to be re-10      stored and shall order that any payments which may 11      have been previously denied or withheld to be paid 12      by the department or agency concerned.

13      “(c) ABSENCE FROM THE UNITED STATES To 14      AVOID PROSECUTION.—

15           “(1) IN GENERAL.—An individual, or a survivor
16       or beneficiary of an individual, may not be paid an-
17       nuity or retired pay on the basis of the service of the 18       individual in any position as an officer or employee 19       of the Federal Government which is creditable to-20       ward the annuity or retired pay, subject to the ex-21       ceptions in section 8311(2) and (3) of this title, if 22       the individual—

23           “(A) is under indictment for an offense de-24       scribed in subsection (a); and

1                 “(B) willfully remains outside the United 2                 States, or its territories and possessions includ-
3                 ing the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, for more 4                 than 1 year with knowledge of the indictment.

5                 “(2) PERIOD.—The prohibition on payment of 6                 annuity or retired pay under paragraph (1) applies 7                 during the period—

8                 “(A) beginning on the day after the end of 9                 the 1-year period described in paragraph (1); 10                 and 11                 “(B) ending on the date on which—

12                 “(i) a nolle prosequi to the entire in-13                 dictment is entered on the record or the 14                 charges are dismissed by competent au-
15                 thority;

16                 “(ii) the individual returns and there-17                 after the indictment or charges is or are 18                 dismissed; or

19                 “(iii) after trial by court or court-mar-20                 tial, the accused is found not guilty of the 21                 offense or offenses.

22                 “(d) PARDONS.—

23                 “(1) RESTORATION OF ANNUITY OR RETIRED
24                 PAY.—If an individual who forfeits an annuity or re-25                 tired pay under this section is pardoned by the

1 President, the right of the individual and a survivor 2 or beneficiary of the individual to receive annuity or 3 retired pay previously denied under this section is 4 restored as of the date of the pardon.

5       “(2) LIMITATION.—Payment of annuity or re-6 tired pay which is restored under paragraph (1)
7 based on pardon by the President may not be made 8 for a period before the date of pardon.

9       “(e) PAYMENTS TO VICTIMS.—

10       “(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding section 11 8346(a), section 8470(a), or any other provision of 12 law exempting an annuity or retired pay from execu-13 tion, levy, attachment, garnishment, or other legal 14 process, if the annuity or retired pay of an indi-15 vidual is subject to forfeiture under this section, the 16 head of the agency administering the annuity or re-17 tired pay shall pay, from amounts that would have 18 been used to pay the annuity or retired pay, 19 amounts to a victim of an offense described in sub-20 section (a) committed by the individual if and to the 21 extent payment of such amounts is expressly pro-22 vided for in—

23           “(A) any court order of restitution to or 24 similar compensation of the victim; or

1                 “(B) any court order or other similar pro-
2                 cess in the nature of garnishment for the en-3                 forcement of a judgment rendered against such 4                 individual relating to the offense or the course 5                 of conduct constituting the offense.

6                 “(2) MAXIMUM AMOUNT.—The total amount 7                 paid to a victim under paragraph (1) shall not ex-8                 ceed the amount that is subject to forfeiture under 9                 this section.

10                 “(3) LIMIT ON REFUNDS.—Contributions and 11                 deposits by an individual whose annuity or retired 12                 pay is subject to forfeiture under this section shall 13                 not be refunded under section 8316 to the extent the 14                 amount of such contributions or deposits are paid to 15                 a victim under paragraph (1).”.

16                 (b) NONACCRUAL OF INTEREST ON REFUNDS.—Sec-
17                 tion 8316 of title 5, United States Code, is amended—

18                 (1) in subsection (a), in the matter preceding 19                 paragraph (1), by inserting “under section 8312a 20                 or” before “because an individual”; and 21                 (2) in subsection (b)—

22                 (A) in paragraph (1), by striking “or” at 23                 the end;

24                 (B) in paragraph (2), by striking the pe-25                 riod at the end and inserting “or”; and

1 (C) by adding at the end the following:

2               “(3) if the individual is convicted of an offense 3 described in section 8312a(a), for the period after 4 the conviction.”.

5       (c) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of sec-6 tions for chapter 83 of title 5, United States Code, is 7 amended by inserting after the item relating to section 8 8312 the following:

“8312a. Convicted child molesters.”.
